INSTRUCTIONS

1. Form A shall be used where the data subject wishes to object to the processing of his or her personal data, on grounds relating to his or her particular situation, in any of the following situations:

- The processing of your personal data is being carried out on the basis of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of public authority vested in the controller.
- The processing of my personal data is being carried out on the basis of the satisfaction of legitimate interests pursued by the controller or a third party.

In these first two cases, the mere exercise of the right of objection entails the restriction of the processing of my personal data.

-The processing of my personal data is being carried out for scientific or historical research or statistical purposes.

Model B. shall be used when the data subject wishes to object to the processing of his or her personal data for direct marketing purposes, including profiling.

2. The applicant must be sufficiently identified in the application, which must be signed. If the request is made by a third party, the representation granted for this purpose must be duly accredited. You should be aware that, where the controller has reasonable doubts as to the identity of the natural person making the request, the controller may request that additional information be provided to confirm the identity of the natural person making the request.

3. The Spanish Data Protection Agency does not have their personal data and can only provide the contact details of the Data Protection Officers of the entities obliged to appoint one who have notified their appointment to the Agency. It may also provide these contact details in respect of those entities that have voluntarily appointed a Data Protection Officer and have notified it.

4. The owner of the personal data undergoing processing must contact directly the public or private body, company or professional of which he/she presumes or is certain that he/she holds the data.

5. In order for the Spanish Data Protection Agency to process your complaint in the event that your request to exercise your right to object has not been dealt with, it is necessary for one month to have passed without the data controller having exercised the right, and for you to provide any of the following documents:

- the refusal of the controller to object to the data requested.
- a copy stamped by the data controller of the form for requesting objection.
- a copy of the application form stamped by the post office or a copy of the receipt for sending it by registered post.
- any other means of proof provided by the controller from which receipt of the request can be deduced.
